ESSCA SUMMER SESSION 2019

ESSCA SUMMER SESSION

JUNE 28 – JULY 13

ESSCA is pleased to announce its 2019 Summer Session. This program takes place during the first two weeks of July, starting with a weekend in Paris followed by a week of classes in Angers and will terminate by a week of classes on our Bordeaux campus.

Students who follow this programme have the possibility to earn 7,5 ECTS.

Teaching will be carried out by the regular ESSCA research staff and adjunct professors with the possibility of guest speakers and outings.

The Programme

ESSCA Summer Session:

- is an intensive 2-week programme
- is entirely taught in English
- is on 3 locations : Paris, Angers, Bordeaux.
- is open to both undergraduate and graduate students
- offers a multicultural learning environment which develops cross-cultural skills
- provides a knowledge into the essential aspects of France
- courses and company visits
- includes field trips to outstanding cultural heritage sites.

The programme starts with a weekend in Paris

Followed by a week in Angers, located in Western France. With a population of 160 000 inhabitants, the green city has a historical town centre, a great number of parks, a 12th century fortress.

And will end in Bordeaux, a city which is a historic city in the heart of southwest France with ancestral know-how. The wine sector is among the best known in the world.

Courses

Two courses will be offered during this program.

In Angers:

Doing Business in France

- Intercultural and French Management
- Entrepreneurship in France
- Doing business in France from a HR perspective

In Bordeaux:

International Luxury Brand Marketing

This course will give students overview of the French and international luxury industry
