

EXCHANGE STUDENTS AT TENNESSEE TECH UNIVERSITY

If you wish to be an exchange student at Tennessee Tech first check to see if your institution has an agreement with Tennessee Tech. Many institutions are affiliated with Magellan and ISEP or we have a one-to-one exchange agreement. At present, Tennessee Tech has one-on-one agreements with schools in Korea, Japan, Sweden, Germany, Egypt, Brazil, Austria, and the Ukraine.

TU Tennessee Tech
UNIVERSITY

More Than Tech.

How do I begin?

To begin the process it is recommended to apply online or contact International Student Affairs for a paper or electronic application at intl_adm@tntech.edu.

To apply online go to TTU's Eagle Online at www.tntech.edu/eagleonline/

You need to pick a nickname that you can remember. Once you complete the application you will be assigned a special ID number called the "T Number." The Office of International Student Affairs will send a list of requirements to complete your application.

What must I submit to be an exchange student?

1. A letter of good standing from your current university
2. Transcripts in English from your institution with a minimum GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale
3. Adequate evidence of financial support equal to $5,000 (U.S.) per semester
4. Copy of your passport bio page
5. Copies of your immunization records
6. Once admitted, be sure to pay the SEVIS fee prior to your visa appointment; go to www.fmjfee.com to pay the $200 SEVIS fee online.
7. Once admitted you will be sent a Certificate of Admission and your DS2019 which will be used to apply for your J-1 visa.

How much does it cost to be an exchange student?

1. If there is a one-to-one reciprocal ratio exchange, students are not required to pay tuition to Tennessee Tech.
2. Exchange students are eligible to work on campus and do Co-ops. (ISEP students are not eligible.)
3. Exchange students only pay housing, meals, insurance and the international fees (less than $3,500 a semester).
